Allow God to Change You

While he was at Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at the table, a woman came with an alabaster jar of very costly ointment of nard, and she broke open the jar and poured the ointment on his head.

Mark 14:3

So often people are afraid of brokenness. But if your outer man is broken, the powerful things inside you can pour forth. The perfume of the Holy Spirit is within you, but the alabaster box, which represents the flesh, has to be broken for that sweet fragrance to be released. The flesh is naturally prideful and stubborn.

To fully release the power of the Holy Spirit within you, you must allow God to do with you as He wills, knowing that everything in life changes.

If you are to have stability in your life you must remember life is a continual process in which everything—including you—is constantly changing. You must hope in God. The only one who “is the same yesterday, today, and forever” (Hebrews 13:8 NKJV).

Devotions by Joyce Meyer
